

Bach to the Future

In collaboration with the Carmel Bach Festival and Church of the Wayfarer for Children and Youth in Kindergarten through Grade Eight

No bones about it . . . Treat yourself to two weeks of doggone special uplifting fun!

“Bach to the Future”

July 20 – 26 (No sessions on Saturday) 9 a.m. until 3:30 p.m.
Bach to Church Sunday . . . July 26 at 10 o'clock

“Get a Handle on Handel”

July 27 – August 2 (No sessions on Saturday) 9 a.m. until 3:30 p.m.
Handel in Church Sunday . . . August 2 at 10 o'clock

Bach to the Future offers two weeks this year. Each week is a separate program, and there is no duplication of activities in each week and of past years. The titles of the sessions may be similar. The children and youth are divided into age appropriate groups for some of the sessions. Sessions will include:

Paws for Bach and Handel with the Choristers . . . Singing the music of Bach and Handel

Bach Talk . . . Informal conversations with Bach Festival vocal and instrumental artists

Pet-acular with Bow, Blow and Beat . . . Bach Festival Orchestra members introduce a different instrument each day

Hot Diggidy Dog! – Building Bach Community . . . Music games will draw you into fun-filled, creative experiences

Get a Grip on This . . . An introduction to the art of handbell ringing

Wiggle and Wag with Bach in Motion . . . Learn to express yourself through creative movement to music

Tantalizing treats with Bach to the Drawing Board . . . Express yourself through creative visual art experiences with

GINNA from Glazes in the Crossroads as you are guided in your creation with ceramics

Sniff This Out – Bach in the Kitchen . . . Participants will enjoy decorating cookies and making candy with Tina from the Chocolate Dipper in Salinas

Perk up Your Ears with Tales and Tunes . . . Crawl into the music and see what you will find

Fetch This – Bach in Time with Mr. Bach . . . Enjoy visits from Mr. Bach each day

A Bach's lunch is provided by Flaherty's of Carmel for the children each Each participant receives a Bach to the Future T-shirt day.

Registration fee for each week is $100 due on or before July 13, 2009 – For further information contact Carreena Robohm, Director of Music and Children's Ministries • telephone 831.663.6218 • paws4music@redshift.com •
Please visit us online: www.carmelbachtothefuture.org

Make tracks to Church of the Wayfarer for Bach to the Future Bark about Bach and Handel . . . They are pawsitively terrific!

